1965 - 1966

September 1965 through June 1966...Rex Putnam's banner year. This book, a symbol of our hopes, dreams and memories we cherish from high school, is proudly dedicated to our first senior class. As our school has become larger, we too have grown, reaching a fuller understanding of our life, and becoming prepared for the future. May we always remember these years filled with fun, laughter and learning as we find our path in this mad world.

Hatfield visits putnam

Rex Putnam's Girls' League had the pleasure of having Mark O. Hatfield, governor of Oregon, as their guest speaker. As a result of his importance, the Girls' League opened this assembly to the faculty and student body. Governor Hatfield spoke on the values and benefits of education. On behalf of the Putnam student body, Lynn Bubenik presented him with a toy stuffed elephant emblematic of his party preference journalism field trip

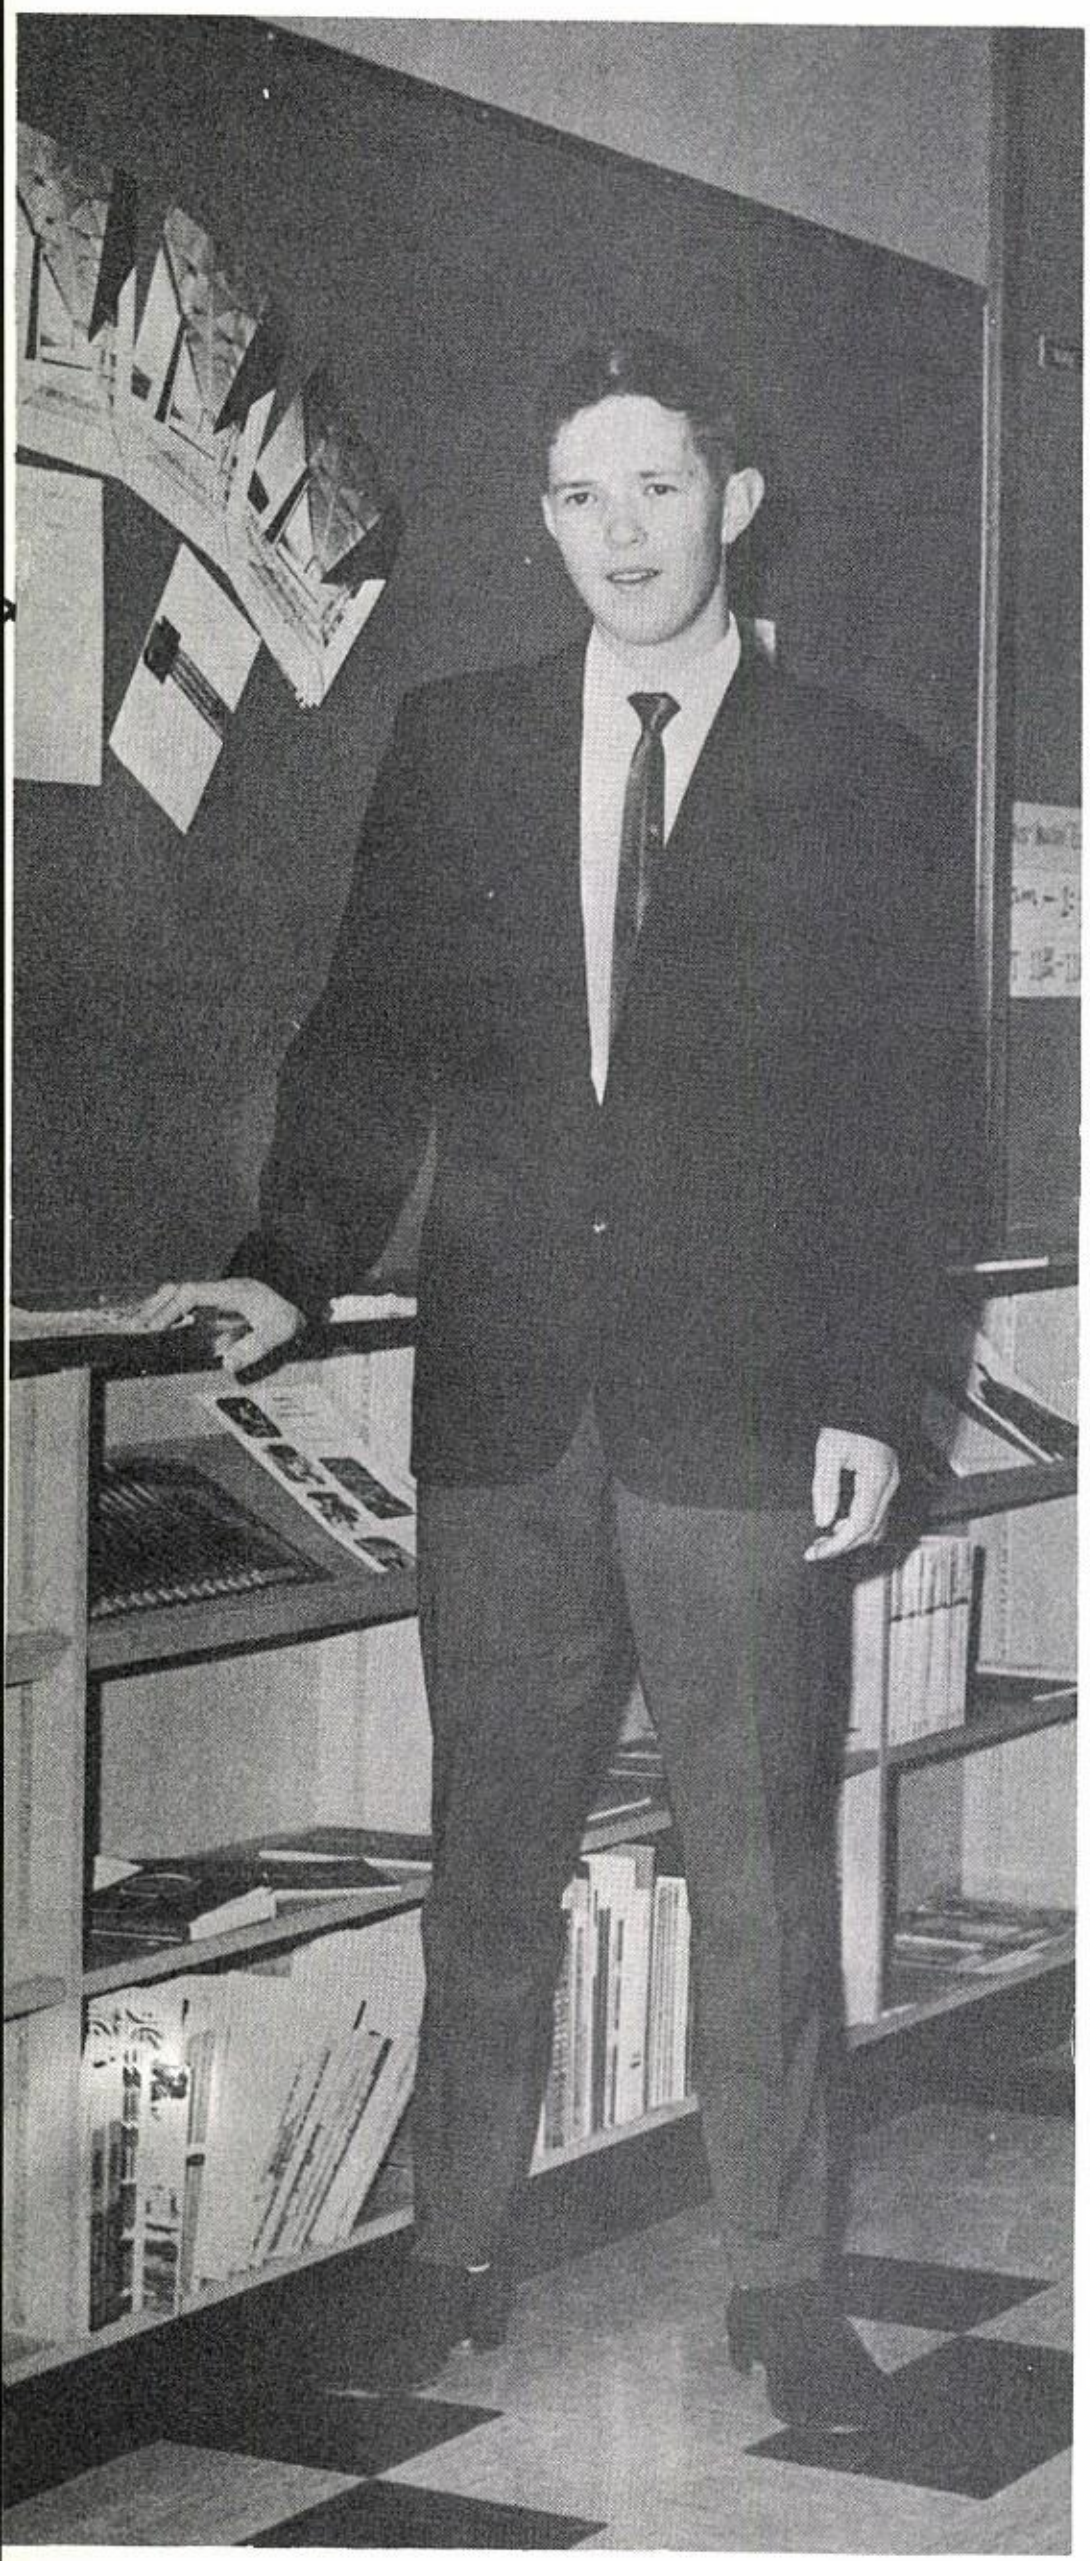
Friday, October 13th, twenty students from Rex Putnam Journalism classes, and students from West Linn, Oregon City, and Lake Oswego, traveled to the University of Oregon to attend the Annual Oregon High School Press Conference. Irving Lloyd (right), a noted photographer, spoke on yearbook layout techniques. Many other lectures and discussions took place. All the students had a very educational, interesting and enjoyable time.

Pieter Bakkes



When people meet other people, friendships are soon formed, and by becoming friends each person or group learns about the other's culture and traditions. Some may differ radically from their new friends and others less. But, even with your next door neighbour, you will always have other experiences to share and talk about. This is the main goal of the American Field Service program.

During World War 1 the A.F.S. originated as a volunteer ambulance corps. It also served in the Second World War and during this time, carried over a million wounded soldiers. These people came in contact with many soldiers from foreign countries so that an understanding developed between people of different countries with diversified cultures and traditions.

After the Second World War, these people wanted to continue its traditions and it was then, in 1946, that the American Field Service International Scholarships began.

A.F.S. is conducted and supported by private citizens from the United States and receives special assistance and cooperation from the U.S. Government. It has no religious or political affiliations and only operates with sole purpose of establishing understanding among the people of the world.

By bringing young students together from more than sixty different countries, t h e y establish a new friendship --- a friendship that is again carried over to their own people.

In this way, the people of every country in the world can be friends and thereby a world of peaceful people can be secured.

Pieter J. Bakkes

Pieter's american family

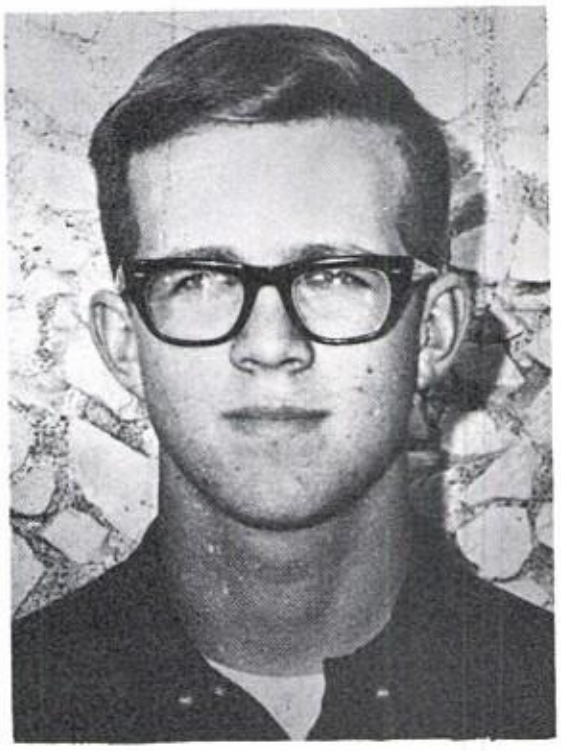
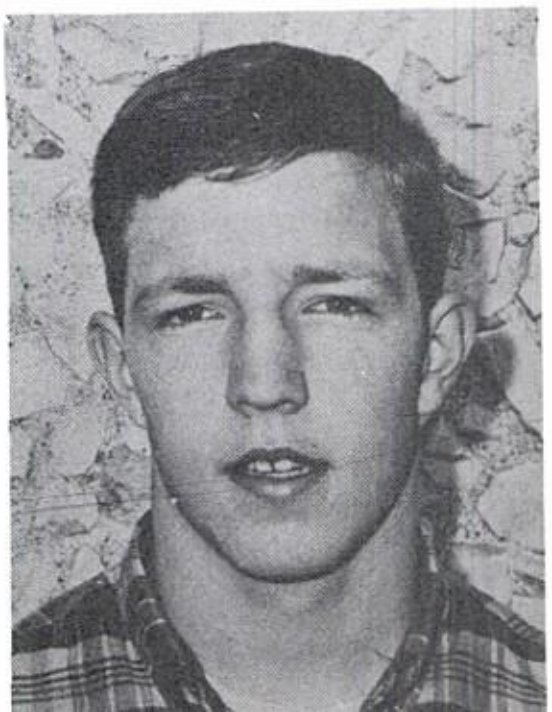
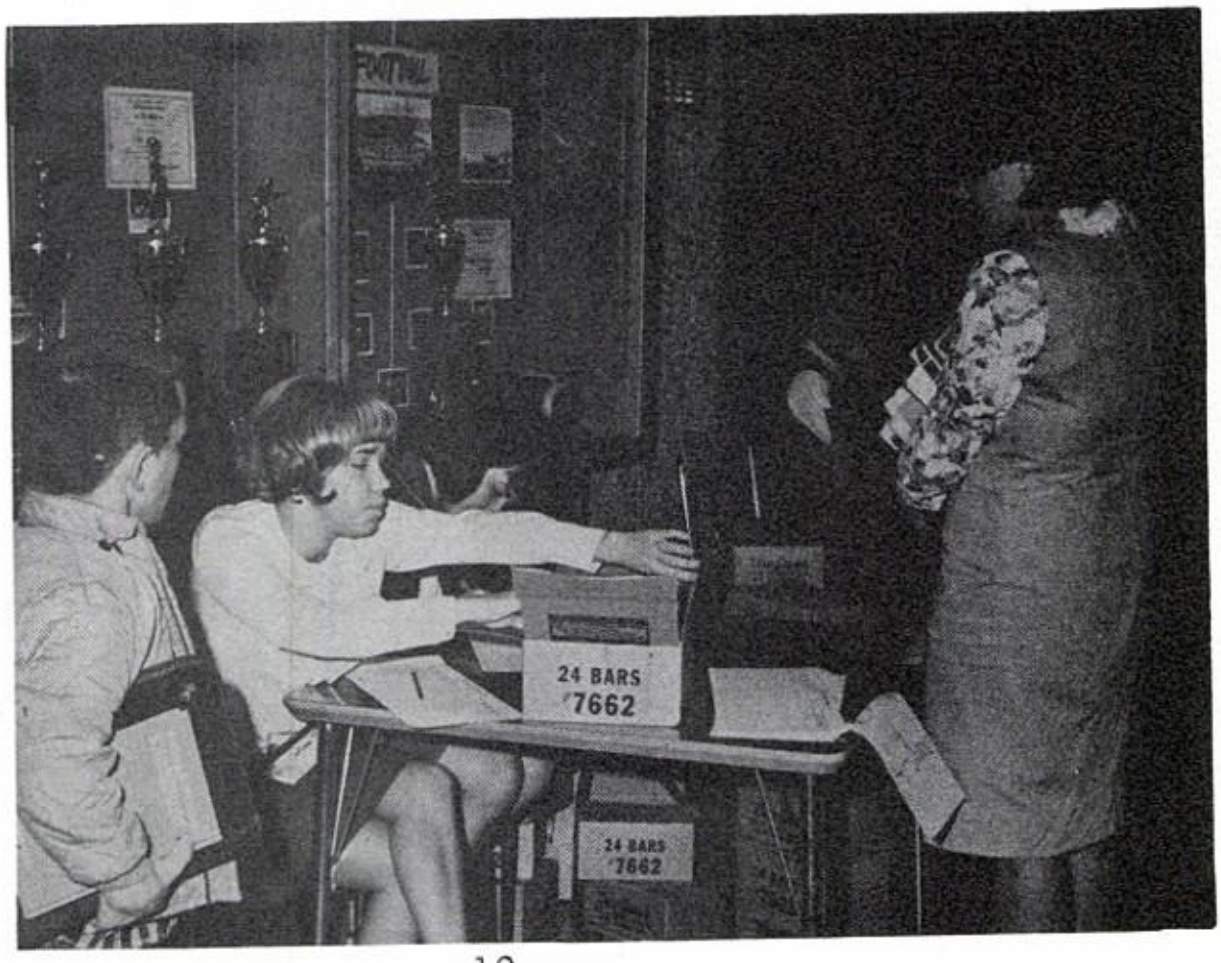
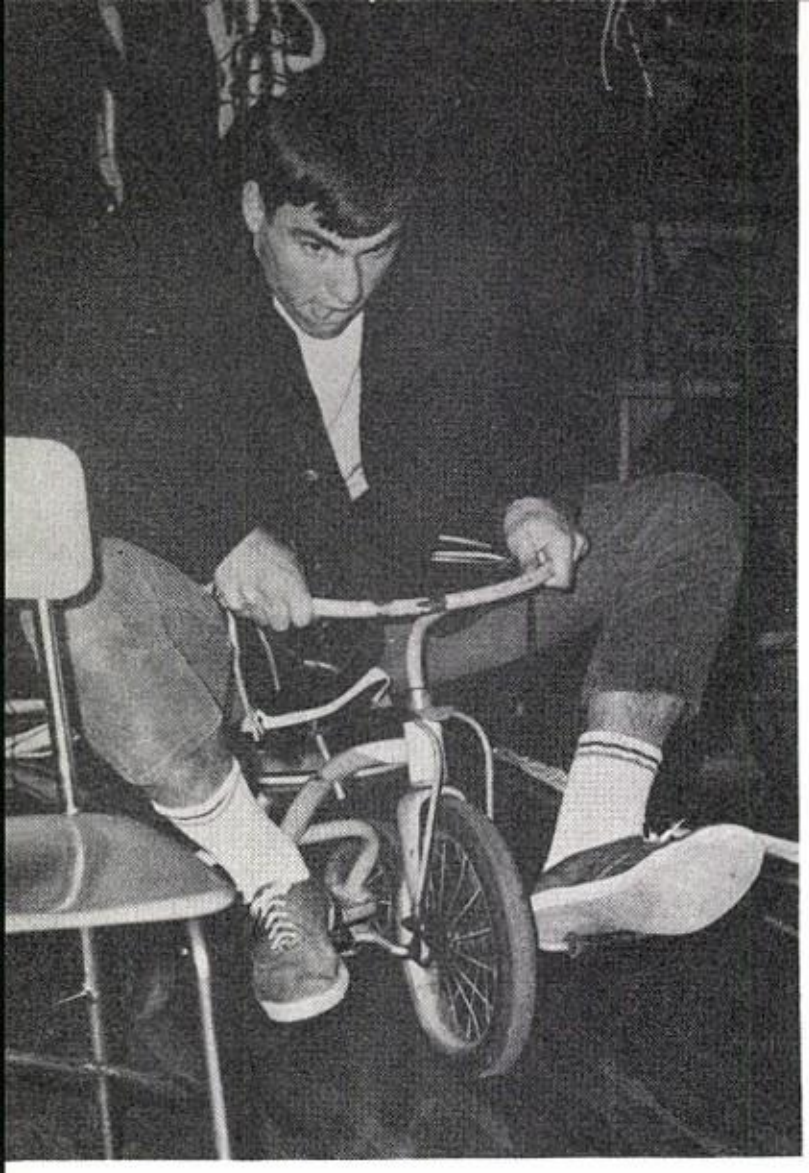
a.f.s. semi-finalists

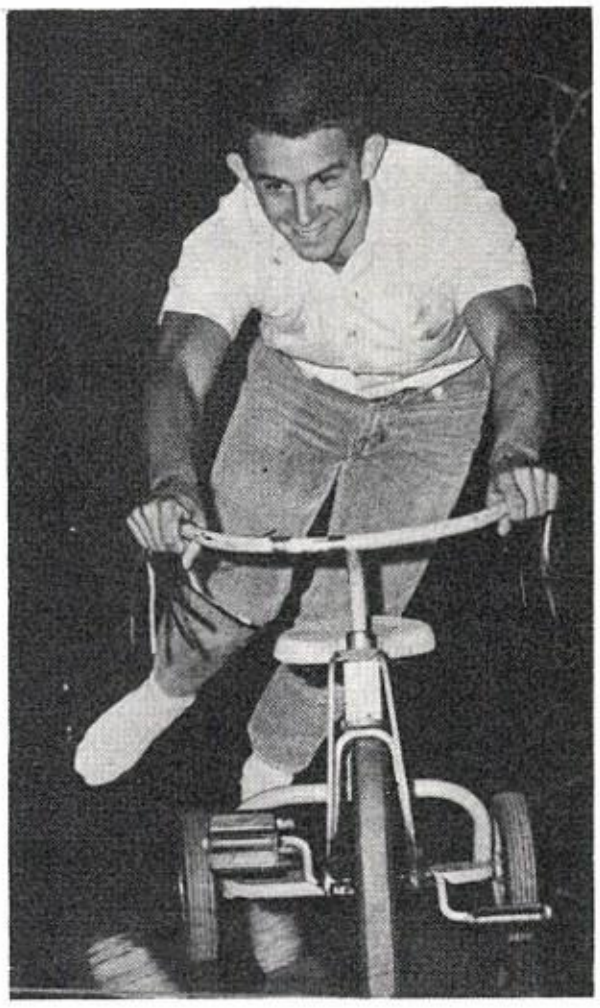




Qualifying as semifinalists in the American Field Service Program were Juniors, Bill Princen and Joe Rowan (left). In order to alleviate the cost of bringing a foreign exchange student to Rex Putnam, the student body participated in a candy drive. Profits were $1102.31.

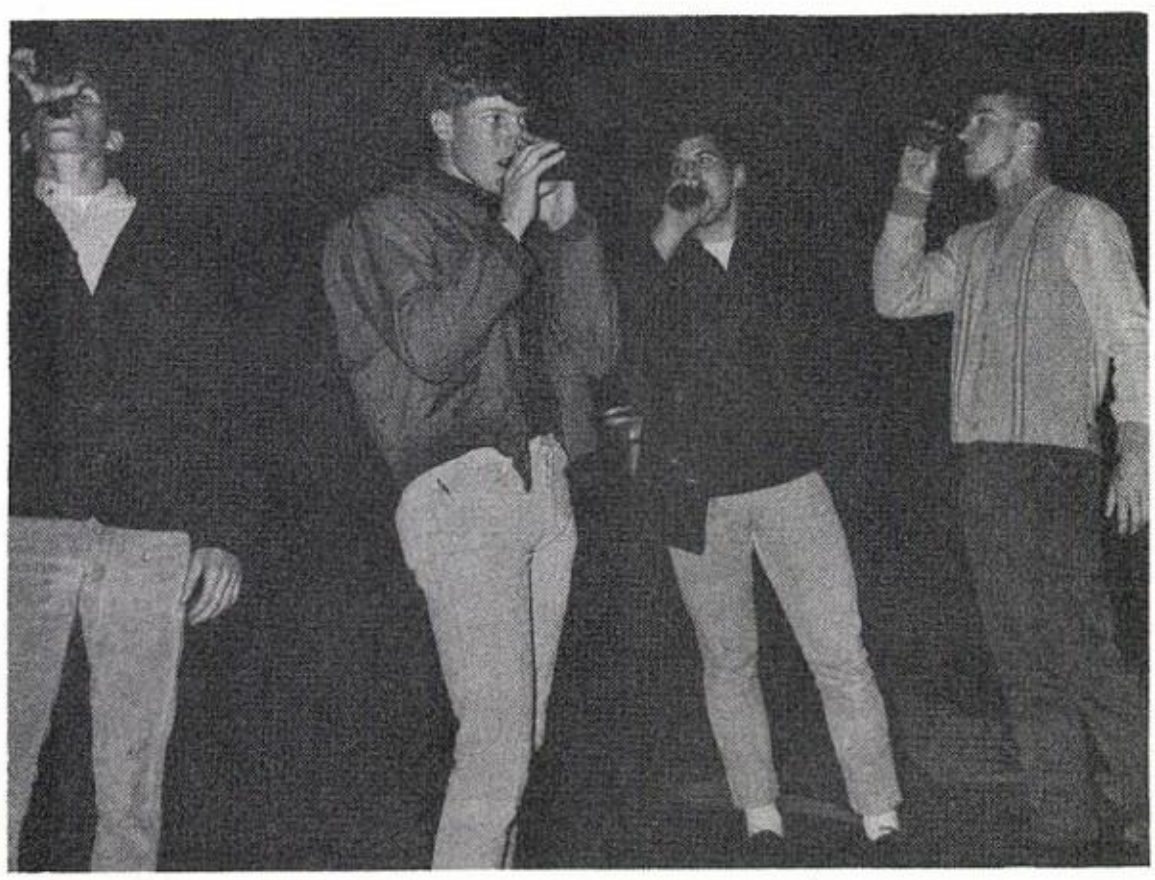






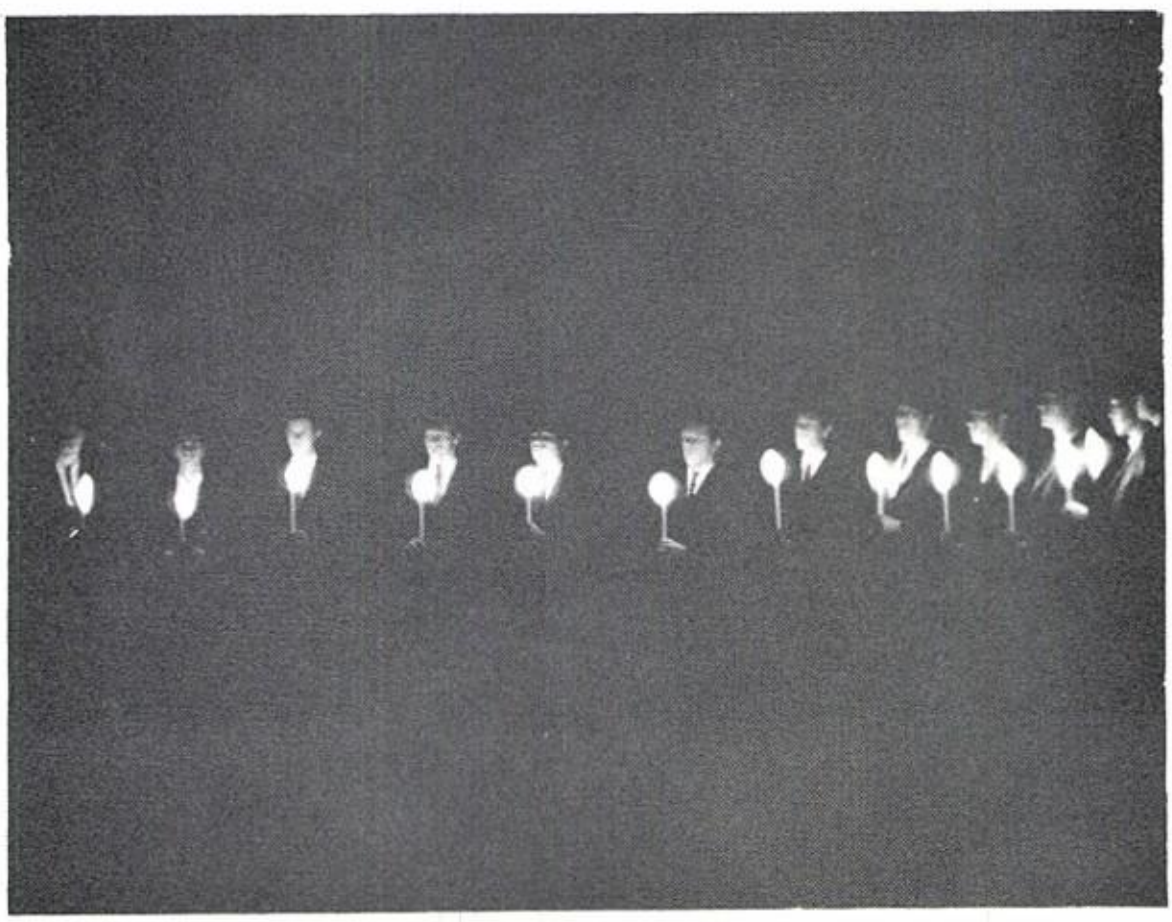
Slave day

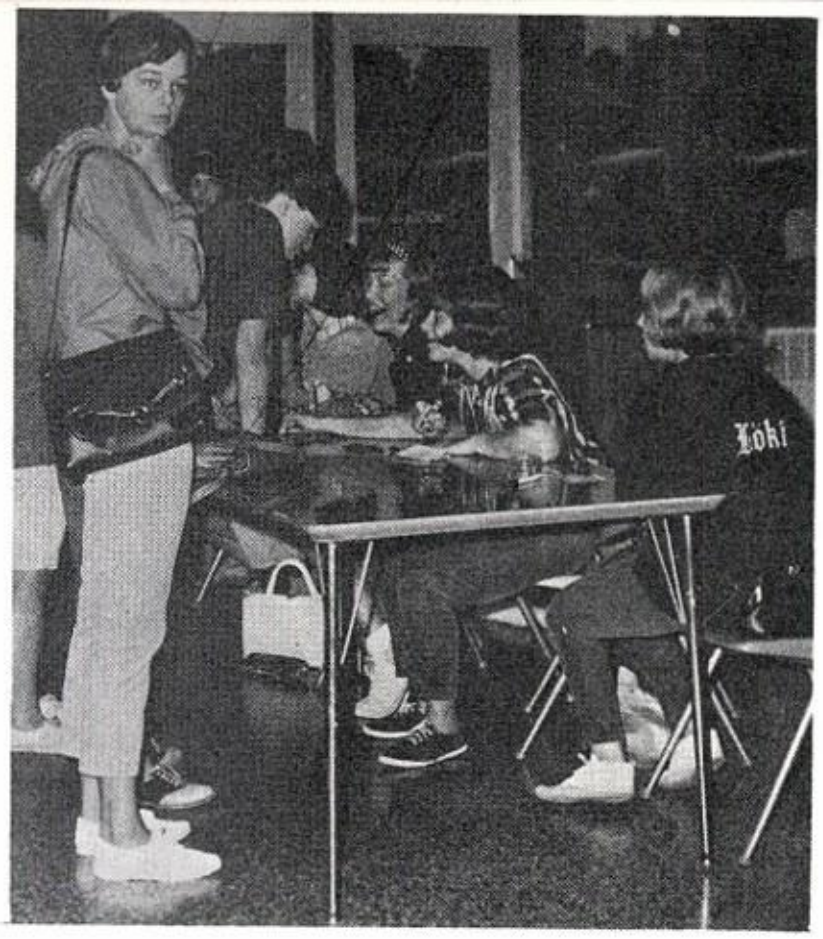
Rex Putnam's annual ATS Candy Drive provided $1100 along with many laughs at the Slave Day Assembly. Seniors furnished the entertainment as a penalty for losing the candy drive to the freshman class.



assemblies

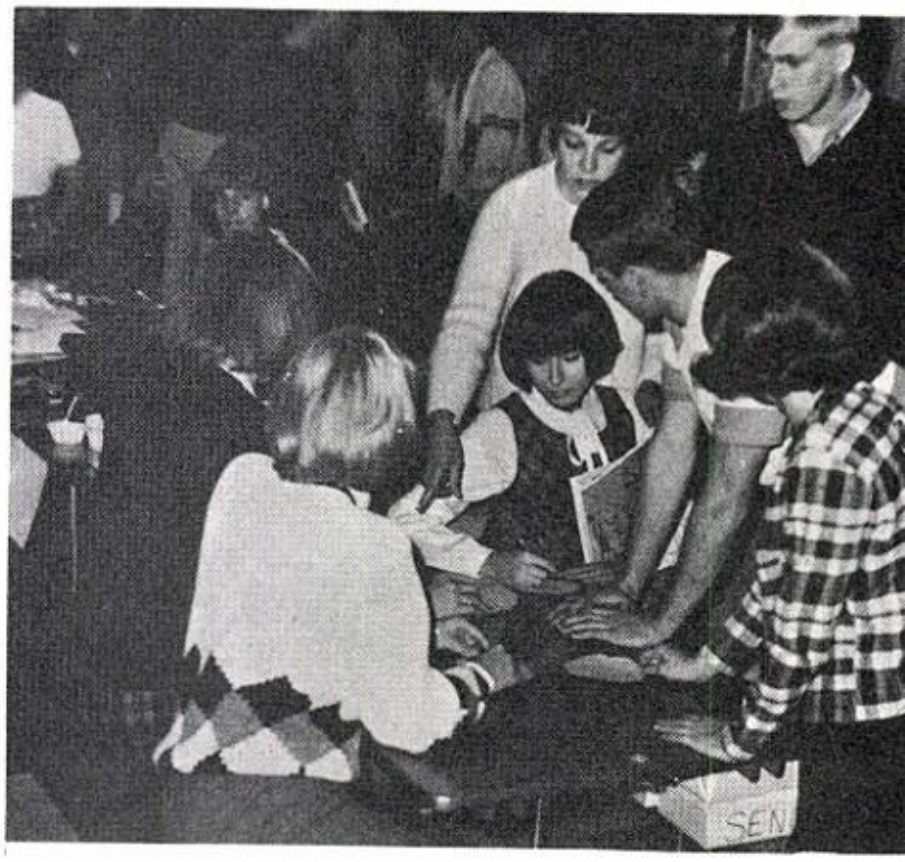
Putnam students and faculty enjoyed a number of varied assemblies throughout the year. Rousing pep assemblies included skits and yells performed by the different rally squads. Freshmen were properly welcomed at the frosh assembly and armed forces and past presidents were honored by candlelight and chorus at the Veterans' Day Assembly.

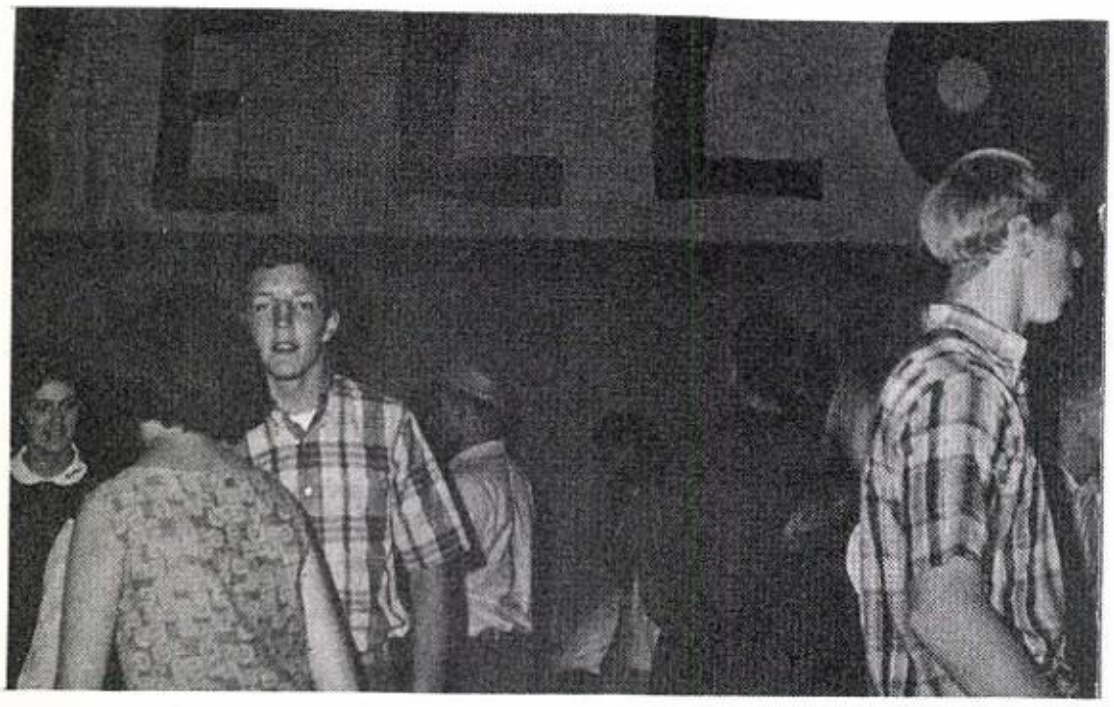


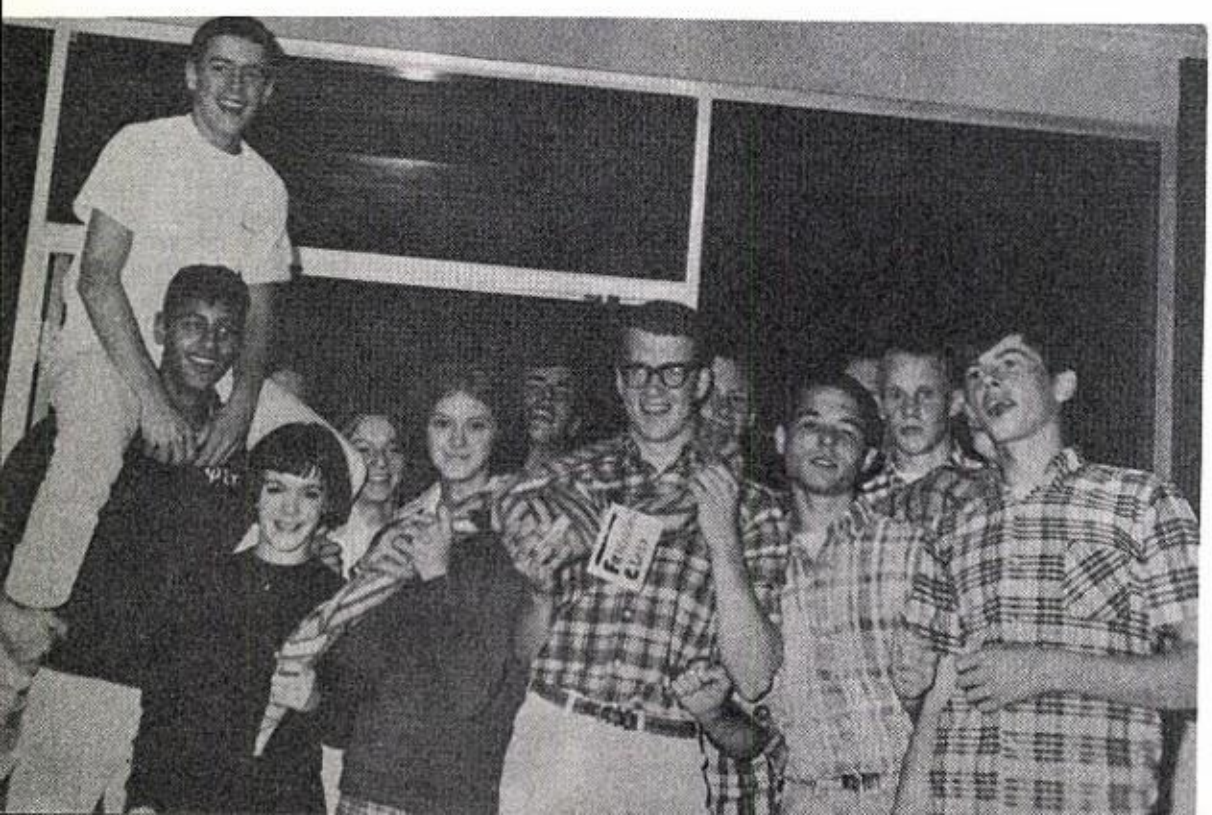


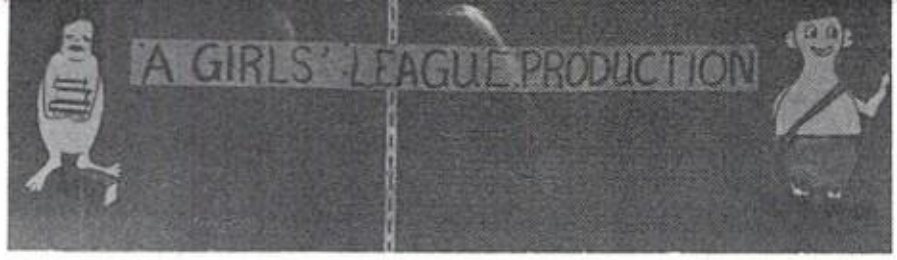
girls' league activities

September 9, 1965, Girls' League held its annual Big and Little Sister Party. The girls enjoyed an evening of entertainment and various activities such as wheelbarrow racing, relays, and "get acquainted" games. Girls' League's second annual event was Hello Week which was held during the week of September 20-24. The main purpose of this activity was to promote friendship throughout the school. During this week the classes competed in signing "hello tags," and the Junior class was chosen as the friendliest class and awarded "Alvin."

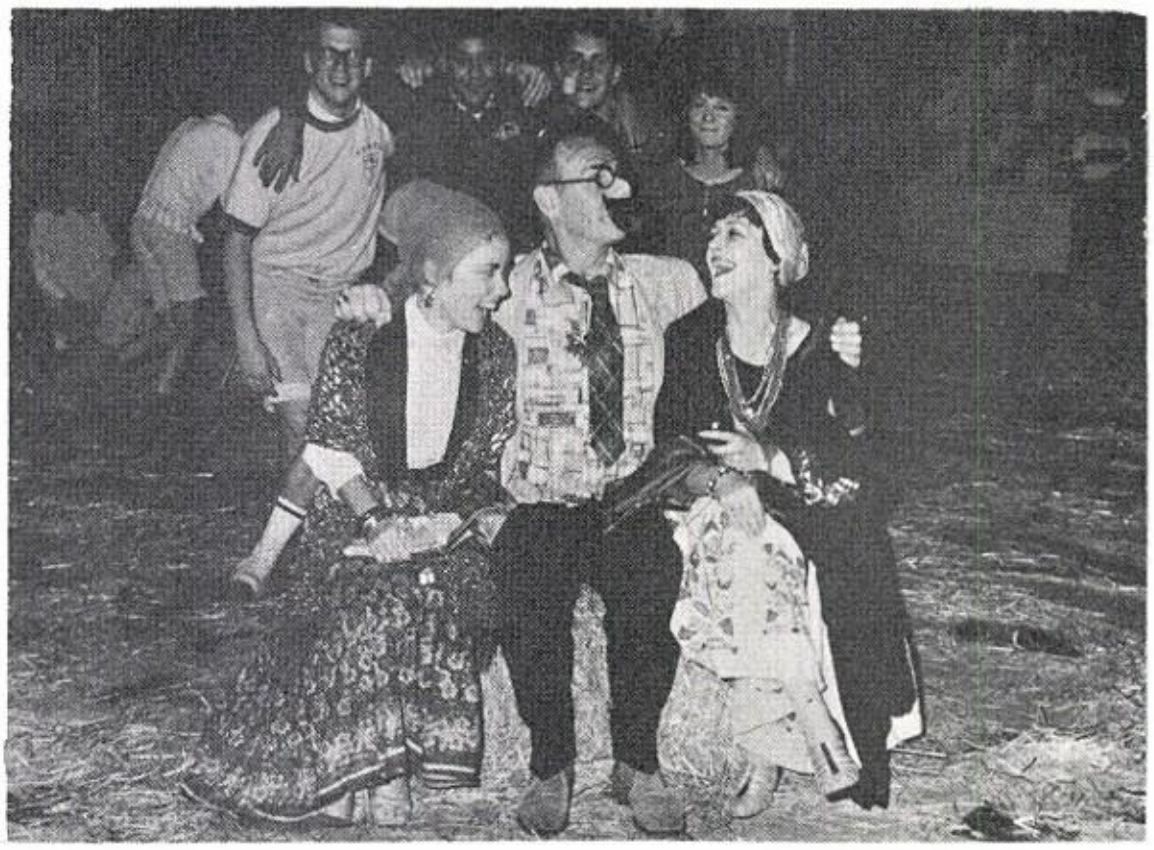






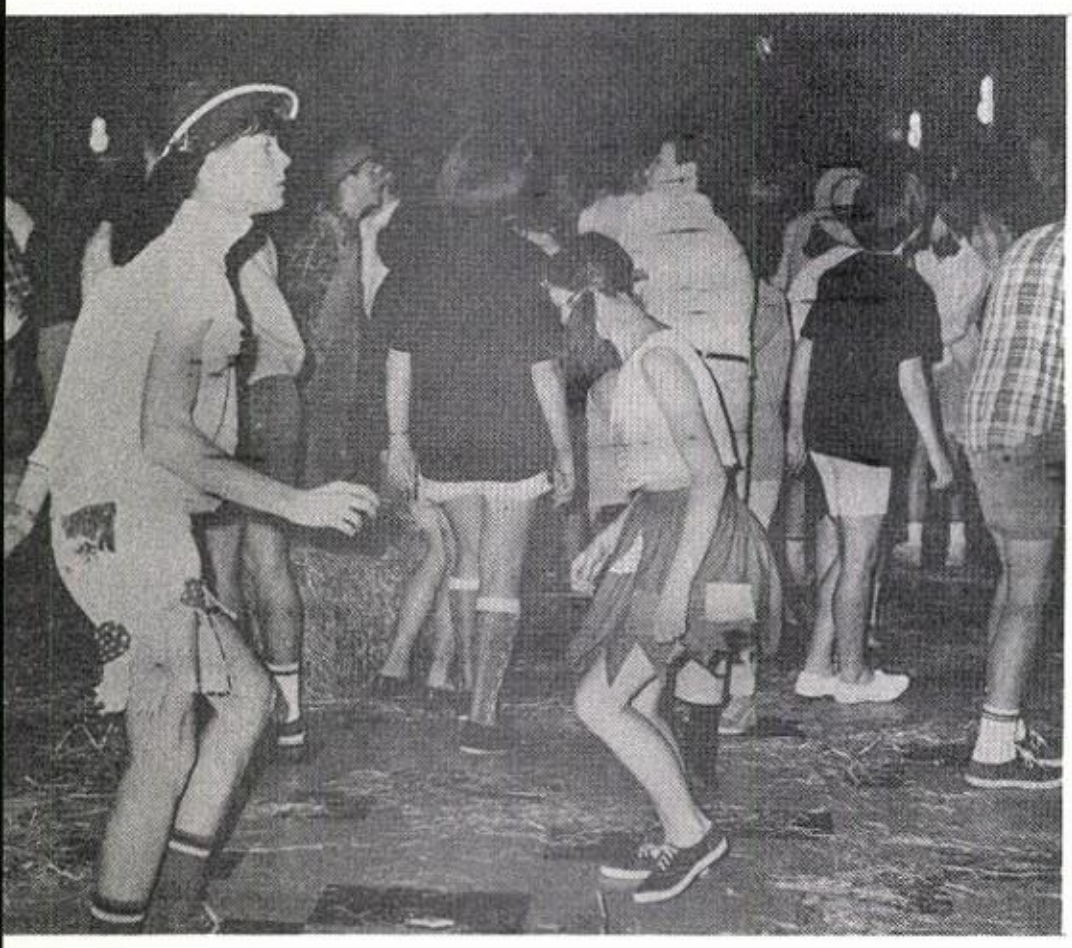


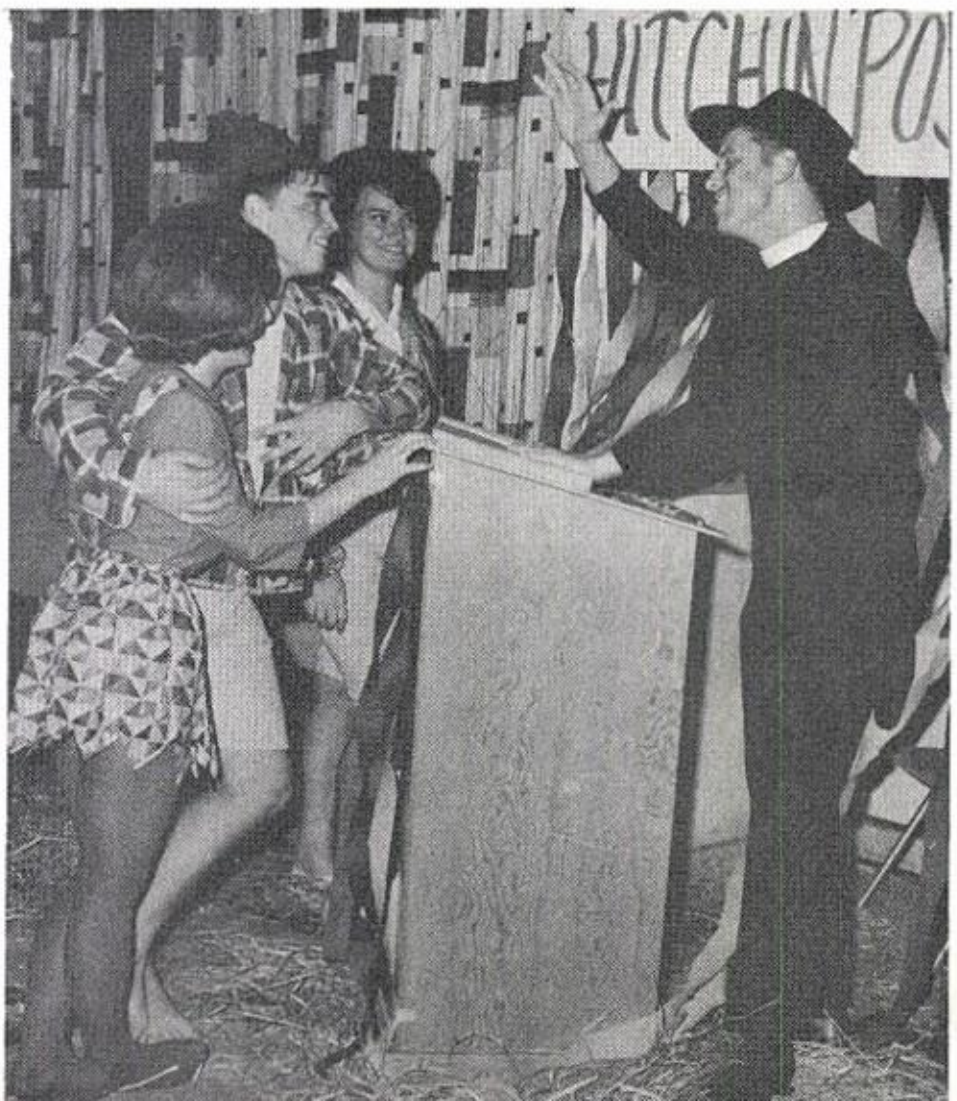
Among the Fall activities, Girls' League presented two fashion shows. One was presented by the Girls' League Council, and the other was sponsored by Simplicity Patterns. Showing the current styles, both shows brought delighted "oohs" and "aahs" from the audience.



twirp week

Twirp Week is an annual five-day frolic involving Lug Day, Black Mum Day, Crazy Sox Day and Crazy Tie Day, which, along with the Twirp Marshals and their tickets, made a fun-filled break in school routine. Climaxing the week was the Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored by Girls' League on November 19.





dances

k-men enter metro competition

Completing their first Metro-League season, the Putnam Kingsmen rolled to a league record of two wins, four losses, and two ties. The Kingsmen dropped the first two games to Clackamas and Hillsboro. On their home field, they came back to crush Astoria, Milwaukie, and Washington High School of Portland in a non-league game. On foreign ground again, Putnam lost to Central Catholic and state champion David Douglas. In the remaining two games, the Kingsmen held Sunset and Centennial to ties.

The leading scorers for Putnam were Rick Verhaeghe, Dave Busby, and Keith Evans with 33, 19, and 18 points respectively. The leading ground gainers for the Kingsmen were Dave Busby with 300 yards, Keith Evans with 238 yards, and Rick Verhaeghe with 216 yards. At quarterback, Dan Purcell completed 49 out of 114 passes for 43% and 525 yards. Senior Stan Trytko was chosen as Metro-All-Star on first team defense at linebacker. Given honorable mention for the Metro-All-Star team were Dave Conrad at tackle, Steve Smelser at guard, Bob Murphy at end, Dave Busby at fullback, and Dan Purcell at quarterback. Chosen as the "most valuable" player for Putnam was Stan Trytko, and the "most inspirational" player was Dave Conrad.

Coach John Wilcox felt the team gained much respect as they finished their first season in the Metro-League and sees a good season in store for the Kingsmen next year.

The spirited Putnam harriers ran up a season record of three wins and seven losses. In the district meet, Putnam placed eighth in the Metro League. In the non-league action, the Kingsmen runners took fifth place in the North Marion Invitational meet.

Running the 2.5 mile course took much endurance and strength from all participants. Junior Ben Steele set a course record of 14:02. Coach Henry Kilmer was well satisfied with the outcome of the season and looks for much improvement in next year's team. Voted "most valuable" during the season was Ben Steele and the "most improved" runner was Erling Hegseth.

putnam wins 11

With the completion of an exciting 1966 basketball season, the Kingsmen rolled to a record of 11 wins and 11 losses. In league play, Putnam won 10, lost 10, and placed sixth in overall league standings.

The Kingsmen opened league play by downing Sunset (the second A-1 team in the state), Clackamas, and Centennial, before losing to Hillsboro, David Douglas, Milwaukie, and Central Catholic. Putnam came back to trample Beaverton previous to successive defeats from Astoria and Gresham. Putnam started the second half of league play shakily as they met defeat from Sunset and Clackamas. Coming back, the Kingsmen defeated Centennial, David Douglas, Milwaukie, Beaverton, Central Catholic, and Hillsboro. The two remaining defeats came from Astoria and Gresham.

Putnam was led by the scoring of All-Stater Steve Norris who led the league in scoring with 386 points and a 19.3 average, fifth in all-time Metro League scoring. Next in scoring were Randy Hurt and Steve Smith with 166 and 163 points respectively. The leading rebounders for the Kingsmen were Stan Trytko with 155, Randy Hurt with 145, and Tom Holm with 128.

Voted "most valuable" player was Steve Norris and "most inspirational" was Tom Steenson. Coach Don McCluskey has seven returning lettermen and hopes to be a threat in Metro League competition.

wrestlers grab 7th

The Kingsmen grapplers finished a great season by grabbing seventh place in the state tourney. The regular season yielded six wins, two losses, and third place in the Metro League.

The season began with an easy victory over Estacada and two first places in various invitational tournaments. In league competition, Putnam trampled Hillsboro, Beaverton, Clackamas Astoria, Gresham, Sunset, and Centennial, while dropping close matches to David Douglas and Milwaukie. Putnam took third in the district meet with champions Joe Stewart, Dan Thomas, and John Ludlow pacing the action. In the state tournament John Ludlow took second place, Joe Stewart took third place, and Ken McIntosh took fourth.

Winning the honor of "most valuable" wrestler was John Ludlow, who also had the most pins for the season. Since the the winning 65-66 team was quite young, coach Don Conway hopes to continue the winning tradition in the years to come.

"Pomp and Circumstance" signaled the beginning of graduation for one hundred eighty-one seniors. During the commencement exercises, each student reviewed his past four years in high school, and as he received his diploma, he realized the worth of those four years.

To each senior, graduation represented a change from the high school world to the adult world. We appreciated and valued the opportunity we had to prepare ourselves for this new adult way of life.

Tri-Language Club membership is open to any 2nd, 3rd, or 4th-year student of French, German, or Spanish, who wants to learn more about other countries.

This year, the club again sponsered the American Field Service assembly and coke party, which enabled the Student Body to learn from thirteen foreign students. Tri-Language members acted as hosts for these students and also held a banquet for them.

Although this year's Mardi Gras was cancelled due to a scheduling conflict, bigger and better language-oriented activities are in store for the future.

Mr. Evans

The American Field Service Committee, composed of the three members above, was created from the Kingsmen Council to help solve and work on any problems and projects concerning American Field Service.

The Committee worked in conjunction with the Council during the fund-raising A.F.S. Candy Drive and with the Tri-Language Club when it sponsored the American Field Service assembly, which drew foreign students from some ten different countries to Rex Putnam.
